

A Tune From The Radio

A tune from the radio

D d7

I'm sure I heard it long before,

G

And now I know where I belong.

g 6/9 D

This world is running away,

But I will keep at my pace,

It's not wise to stay in the race.

Now I'm ready to play

My secret part in the game,

It's not wise to give it away.

They twisted all that you said

Those lying skeleton men,

It's not wise to rise again.

So the wind blows blind,

D7^m

Yet all the flowers fly,

D7

And soon they'll see the light.

G D

I wasted money and time,

D d7

But tried nothing to hide,

G

It's not wise to stay in the mine.

g 6/9 D
