

From the sea and the sky
G e7
The sun and the moon will rise
C G
Everyday and night, but how can we survive
C (c) G
I don't know, but I wish I could fly
a F7^m C D7 (G)

In the air, the strangest sounds
G e7
Are carried everywhere
C G
Noises of this life and whispers of who passed
C (c) G
And I don't know, where I'll go when I fly
a F7^m C D7 (G)

In the end, we'll forget
G e7
And God forgives each man
C G
So kings and slaves can walk all hand in hand
C (c) G
But I don't know, if I will have a friend
a F7^m C D7
