

Out in the field, where used to run
a (g) (d, d, c, d, c, . . .)
She feels nothing, the magic's gone

Even the line "lay your body down"

Slept in her brain and only now

An accidental fall will bring it up.

Lying in the green and the blue above

Blinded by the sun

And this rush of blood

Look at me now, I ended up
d9 e (g)
Like everyone.
