But you will try.
E7 A

You, never gonna reach

The sky in this world.

No flying kites,

No singing birds.

But you will try.

So, did you ever wonder,

How it will go?

What will you take

From all that you saw?

And you will try.

How in the end you'll know it

All on your own.

Blow to the blow,

On the cross to the toe.

And you did try.
