

Strange Things Will Happen

Strange things will happen

e (g e b d c#)

When you're in heaven

(b a# g a g)

And someone's calling your name.

(a# a g a g e e)

You should be seven

But turn eleven

And everything's too late.

And I feel the same

a7(5th fret) +a a6 B4/7(4-th fret)

Like in the early days.

You'll think it's over

When something opens

And now you're ready to go.

Dreams long forgotten

Will take you flyin'

And hear the voices again.

All the little things you'll see

Will bring out sweet old tears.

Now that I told you

I have to hold you

Can't let you go on your ways.

You might not like it

But you will find it

How everything has changed.

All the little things you'll see

Will bring out sweet old tears.
