

The clown was crawling in the throneroom with the beasts
D G
Everyone was shouting "Hail to the King and the Queen".
e7 A
A sudden sadness just sailed in from the sea
D G
And he softly said "Well I disagree".
e7 A
Oh you lucky boy, if you lose your head today you might just have it all.
b f# G e7 A

But God was sleeping and the King only laughed
D G
So an other thousand years had to pa-ss.
e7 A
Now actors and actresses are blinded by their lies
D G
And the sacrificial lamb is grinded into pie.
e7 A

Faces and bodies walking through the void
D G
Billions of stars, each waiting for a soul.
e7 A
I left a message for Euclid in his space,
D G
Cut twenty degrees with the devil in a race.
e7 A

This could be the end of line but somebody just took my hand
D A b G
And the toy store clerk will realise that I am not her dad
D A b G
We are not buyers, we are not liars and the bunnies all must burn.
D A b G
Me and my angel for God's appraisal standing in the line.
D A b G

Dream streams and weird machines, this Johnny had a life.
D A b G
Wow . . and why. . everything's disguised,
D A b G
But when you're ready you will fly the sky.
